

VMI Le Hoang Phu Award

General purpose

Rev. Dr. Le Hoang Phu (1926-2003) was a founding members of the Vietnam Ministry Incorporation, first chairperson of the VMI Board of Directors, and a renowned scholar among the Vietnamese Christian community around the world. In memory of his dedication and contribution to the service of the Lord, the Vietnamese Ministries, Inc establish the VMI Le Hoang Phu Award in 2019 for the purpose of recognizing outstanding contributions to the work of the Lord in the Vietnamese Christian community, and encouraging next generations to commit themselves to the mission of spreading the Gospel.

The award is presented annually to recognize the unique contributions of an individual in the area of theological, leadership development, mentoring, and significant community services in the Vietnamese Christian community in Vietnam and abroad.

The Award:

- . The award is presented annually in the Thanksgiving service on November at the VMI headquarter, or at a Christian conference, or at the church of the awardee's choice.
- . The award includes a prize of $1,000, a Plaque. The VMI will support the recipient up to $500 for travel expenses to attend the Award Ceremony.
- . The reward will be announced to the winner and on the VMI media communications.

Qualifications & Nominations

- . Any Vietnamese pastor or layperson is eligible to serve as a nominator. The nominator is responsible for preparing the detailed information about the nominee (i.e., activities, ministries, education, etc.) and soliciting at least two, but no more than five references capable of assessing the nominee's contributions.
- . Self-nomination is not permitted. Current VMI's Board members and Staff are not eligible to serve as a nominator.
- . The nomination package should consist of
 - A one-half page biography of the candidate of nomination.
 - Four pages of concise descriptions of the accomplishments of the candidate, and
 - At least two letters of references from pastors or leaders who know the candidate well.

Please concisely describe why the contribution is unique for the award.

Deadline for nominations: September 15, 2019

Nominations should be submitted to LeHoangPhuAward@gmail.com by September 15, 2019.